In addition to the royal law, there are also Inshaa Allah (by God's leave) many other rules which should also be implemented in the calculation of the fee. However, the regulation of the manual calculation of HabiSatu ("Haji") or manual calculation of "Siyasat" and "Nahi" is beyond the scope of this book. In fact, this is no different from other Islamic banking operations. Cambridge Studies in Political Theory The second edition of the Cambridge study in political theory, this major new text examines the diverse political ideas and theories from the perspective of a central concern with agency and relations between individuals and groups. Noting that even a short introduction to political theory is a daunting task, and that a deeper study would be beyond the scope of introductory texts, this volume presents a concise collection of works, focusing on some of the key approaches in the theory of politics. The political theorist will be able to understand the different traditions and identify the contributions made to his or her field, as well as learn from the debates that have arisen between rival schools of thought. Political theory brings together a wide range of theories, history, philosophy, and methods of analysis to provide a thorough overview of political thought across time and place.
